Caravaggio: A Life Sacred And Profane

by Andrew Graham-Dixon

Caravaggio: A Life Sacred And Profane is a historical-swashbuckler-cum-detective-story while also providing an up-to-date introduction to some of the great painters. Andrew Graham-Dixon discusses the work of Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio, who lived the darkest and most dangerous life of any of the great painters. Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio (29 September 1571–18 July 1610) lived probably the darkest and most dangerous life of any of the great painters.
